

The Marriage of Eleanor & James

Saturday, the 14th of June

The Orangery, Kew

Gathering Music

Guests are seated

Welcome & Opening Words

Richard Coyle, celebrant

A Reading

“The Quiet Hours” — chosen by the couple — Siobhán Doyle, friend of the bride

The Vows

Spoken in turn — Eleanor and James

Exchange of Rings

Thomas Reed, best man

The Declaration

Richard Coyle, celebrant

Signing of the Register

Witnesses: Aoife Doyle and Thomas Reed

Closing Words

Richard Coyle, celebrant

Recessional

The couple leave together

Drinks on the lawn after the ceremony. Dinner at four o'clock in the Long Room.

Led by Richard Coyle